4.3. Aims, Objectives and Values

Gateway Psychology places the child at the centre of our thinking and practice. We believe that adoption should enable children and young people placed with adoptive families to develop in surroundings conducive to:

- Being healthy and well
- Being safe and able to look after themselves
- Having the skills needed to manage adult life
- Becoming active and fulfilled citizens contributing to society

- Having the hope of economic success and be enabled to reach their own potential

Gateway Psychology Ltd. aims to:

- Provide a prompt, high quality, independent and professional adoption support service that promotes family attachment and stability that are appropriate to the needs, welfare and safety of the client.
- Provide assessments, advice, support and assistance to children and young people who are or have been adopted, fostered or placed in care and to individuals of any age who were adopted, fostered or in care.
- Provide assessments, advice, support and assistance to adoptive parents, foster carers or members of families who are or have been involved in providing adoptive or foster families.
- Provide education and training to those who may be involved in adoption, fostering and care processes including;
  - Local authorities,
  - Children's charities, other charities active in this area,
  - Social workers and other professionals working in the area of child care and inclusion,
  - Families who are considering or who have adopted or fostered, individuals who have been adopted, fostered or placed in care.
- Provide information and advice to adoptive parents, carers, guardians and professionals about adoption and fostering related issues.
- Alleviate the effects of early life trauma and bereavement on adopted or fostered children or children in care
- Encourage and promote healthy attachments and family bonding in adoptive and foster families.
- Provide guidance, support and counselling to adopted children and their families to relieve distress resulting from the impact of adoption on their lives.
- Provide oral and written communications when necessary, in a format which is appropriate to any physical, sensory and learning impairments or communication difficulties. Arrangements will be made for those who are unable to understand the document to have it read, translated or explained to them.
- Monitor and evaluate the provision of services listed above to ensure that they are effective and of an appropriate level of delivery and quality, this includes obtaining feedback from the client/s.
- Provide a complaints procedure and inform the clients of the opportunity to utilise this.
- Where a suitable service cannot be offered for reasons of timing, cost or expertise, we will refer the client to an appropriate service provider, agency or service.

4.4. Assessment and monitoring

- 4.4.1. In order to assess the needs of those requesting adoption support from Gateway Psychology we either refer to assessments provided to us by Social Workers, solicitors, the client or Local Authorities and/or we conduct our own psychological assessment of need.
- 4.4.2. Gateway Psychology monitors and evaluates the provision of services in a variety of ways to all clients, including those utilising adoption support services and training. This is to ensure that our services are effective and of a high quality.
- 4.4.3. Gateway Psychology has a formal complaints process which is posted on the website and is available to all clients and customers.
